Stuart has over thirty years professional experience in finance and valuations, working with one of Australia's leading banks, later heading up his family's business which was Queensland's oldest valuation and real estate firm (Cameron Bros.), subsequently he headed up the Valuations and Professional Services division of McGees Property in Brisbane, and more recently, established his own boutique valuation firm specialising in providing commercial, industrial and retail valuations, rental assessment advice and determinations, statutory valuations advice, resumption compensation assessments and expert opinions on other planning matters.

For the last 23 years, Stuart has specialised in providing residential, industrial, commercial and retail valuation services to clients such as Zupps Property Group, Stadiums Queensland, Defence Housing Australia, Hutchinson Builders, ABC National Television and Radio, Super Retail Group, Pizza Hut & KFC, Repco, K-Mart & Target, as well as a number of high net worth individuals and SME businesses in Brisbane.

Stuart has also provided valuation services for clients seeking Mortgage Security Valuations for lenders including ANZ Banking Group, Commonwealth Bank of Australia, National Australia Bank, Westpac Banking Corporation, St George Bank, Suncorp Bank, Macquarie Bank, Bank of Queensland, BankWest, and Bendigo Bank.

In September 2011, Stuart has made the decision to re-establish himself as an independent operator and established his new business, Crisp Valuation Services. It is through this new entity, that he now concentrates on the "up to $20 million" market segment for commercial, retail, industrial and specialised properties, as well as other client specific property valuation needs.
